

Community Volunteer Interpreter Procedures

1 What is a community volunteer interpreter?

Volunteer interpreters provide language support during discussions and procedures at schools, day nurseries, and administrative organs.

2 When can this system be used?

Interpreting may be done:

- During talks with teachers and to convey the content of matriculation and procedures
- For more complete comprehension of procedures at municipal offices
- For procedures relating to visa application and renewal
- For consultations on human rights issues

Interpreting may NOT be done:

- × At educational institutions or for purposes of language study
- × At private residences or for private matters
- × For arbitration or consultation in personal matters

Please consult with TPIEF to see if interpreting may be provided in situations not listed.

3 Who can use the system?

This system is available for use by any prefectural residents of foreign nationality.

4 Are there any fees?

TPIEF covers volunteer travel expenses and reimbursement as applicable.

5 How does the system work?

① User places request

② Arrangement

③ Dispatch

④ User submits questionnaire

① Submit the Community Volunteer Interpreter Dispatch Request Form by post, fax, email or in person at your local TPIEF office.

② TPIEF arranges for volunteer interpreter dispatch.

③ Volunteer interpreter is dispatched to the discussion location.

④ Be sure to submit the questionnaire when the session is finished.

※Application and questionnaire are available for download on the TPIEF web site.

5 Please note the following:

- TPIEF volunteer interpreters will not reveal personal information to any third party.

- Please apply for dispatch as far in advance as possible. In case of applications submitted immediately before interpretation is needed, it may not be possible to secure a volunteer for the language requested.

- Please arrange any correspondence with your interpreter through TPIEF.

- TPIEF and its volunteers are not responsible for any personal loss or injury contracted during interpretation proceedings.
