

TPIEF Has the Book You're Looking For!

Each of TPIEF's three offices stocks a wide range of materials on international and language themes and various other books to aid in cross-cultural understanding, including the largest collection of Japanese language study materials in the prefecture. We'd be glad to help you locate just the book you need.

Message // Head Office

At our office in Tottori City you'll find staff recommendations available for lending, such as books whose titles translate to "Would you give chocolate to a child on a cacao farm who has never eaten chocolate?" and , which was made into a film . You'll also find books offering the perspective of foreign residents in Japan, with such titles as translate to "The secret life of foreign workers unknown to the Japanese" and "Dreams in the kitchen: The sorrows and hopes of a Nepalese cook and his family in Japan." If you're interested in learning more about Japan or the world, or are looking to boost your Japanese language skills, come on over to our library lending corner. We've got cooking and lifestyle books too!

Message // Kura yoshi

Our office in Kurayoshi City has plenty of picture books for children! We offer children's favourites from the Oxford Reading Tree to the Nate the Great series, as well as Japanese-language versions of I Spy games and loads of other materials for parent and child to enjoy together. Alongside English-language materials we have age-appropriate books on disaster preparedness and issues such as the global trash problem, with copious illustrations or formatted as four-frame comic strips to make understanding easy. Come on by and take a look!

Message // Yonago

The library lending corner at our Kurayoshi City office is well stocked with information on events happening within the prefecture and lots of themes of interest to residents. We are currently showcasing the themes of simple-but-rich Scandinavian fairs and the fun of Korea. With books to help you learn basic conversation in different languages, books offering a glimpse into Scandinavian life and education, and books on Korean cuisine and culture, and magazines that make you feel just like you're traveling abroad, there's sure to be something for everyone. Themes appear for a limited time and are changed regularly, so there is always something new to discover.

< Lending Quantity and Time Limits >

	General Interest & Magazines	Japanese Language Materials
Number of Books	Up to 5
Lending Period	2 weeks	1 month

All materials may be borrowed free of charge. TPIEF members may check out a total of 10 items.

Upcoming Intercultural Exchange Festivals in Tottori Prefecture

- Yonago International Exchange Festival 2025
Date: 3 November (Monday holiday) Venue: Yonago Cultural Hall
- 37th (2025) Annual TIME Festival
Date: 8 November (Saturday) Venue: Torigin Bunka Kaikan
- Kurayoshi Intercultural Exchange Festival 2025
Date: 9 November (Sunday) Venue: Houki Shiawase no Sato

